Jerusalem's Walled City Is Surrendered to Arabs

By Eliav Simon

TEL AVIV, May 17.—(BUP)—A bitter fight for control of the "life-line" highway from Tel Aviv to Jerusalem appeared to be shaping up today, as reliable reports from Amman, trans-Jordan, indicated that Jews had surrendered the old Walled City of Jerusalem to the Arabs.

Jewish forces hold most strategic points in Jerusalem outside the old city, which contains Christendom's most sacred shrines, it was reported, but Arabs have the city under shelling.

Irish Zvai, Israeli men, only recently taken into the Jewish army, were fiercely attacking Ramleh, an Arab town of 20,000 only nine miles from Tel Aviv on the road to Jerusalem, on which the Holy City's 100,000 Jews depend for food and supplies.

EGYPTIANS ADVANCE
But Cairo reports said that Egyptian troops had advanced from the south to a point only 30 miles from Tel Aviv and only 25 miles from Ramleh, the Arab town the Israelis were attacking, and that the Egyptians would seek to reinforce the Ramleh defenders.

The American resolution declared that a threat to the peace and a breach of peace actually exist in Palestine at the present time.

Police Hold Suspect In $500 Safe Robbery

One man is being held by police in connection with Sunday's double-barrelled safe cracking at Edmonton Auto Spring Works.

The suspect, arrested for vagrancy, was remanded until May 25, in police court.

Final checks reveal nearly $500 in war bonds, $18 in silver and some personal papers as the total loot gained by the safecrackers. Mr. H. McCoy, manager of the firm, told The Bulletin today.

The break-in is believed to have occurred between 2:40 a.m. and 5 a.m. Sunday morning.

Police checked the premises at 2:40 a.m. and found nothing amiss. FOUND WINDOW OPEN

At 5:10 a.m. Constable Dave McIntosh found an east window forced open.

Passing around to the front of the building, McIntosh saw both safes with doors open and contents strewn across the floor.

Detectives estimated that a steel instrument had been used to punch the spindles from the safe doors.

A tin box containing papers and bonds and the silver was also found. Nothing else in the building had been touched.

LITTLE SKILL REQUIRED
The job was not necessarily done by professionals, police officials said today.

Relatively little skill was required to punch away the dials, they explained.

Entry was gained through the east window situated 40 feet from

Braund Patient Dies On Way Home

SAN FRANCISCO, May 17.—(CP)—Mrs. Rose Otto, 42-year-old cancer victim from Victoria, B.C., died last night at Hula, New Guinea, it was learned here today.

Mrs. Otto was en route home by plane from Sydney, Australia, where she had been treated by John Braund, 79-year-old layman who claimed he had a cure for cancer. He was later branded a "faker."

She was one of eight Canadian cancer sufferers who made the 8,000 mile flight to Australia in search of a cure. She was the second one to die.

Mrs. Otto's body will arrive here Wednesday by air, and will be sent by train to her home.

On the homeward flight she was accompanied by a nurse, supplied by a wealthy Australian who paid all hospital and medical expenses for the Victoria woman.

NEW LOOK REALLY SUITS AN OLD CROOK

NEW YORK, May 17.—(AP)—The new look is great for an old crook.

An article in the American Druggist magazine says the new long skirts give shoplifters greater opportunities to conceal stolen articles.

The fashions have brought back a once-outmoded device consisting of an elastic band fastened above the knees with hooks attached. Stolen articles are swept under the long skirt and hung on the hooks.

Waters of Pembina River Rise 8 Inches During Week-End

Flood conditions along the Pembina river, which had been receding rapidly late last week, became slightly worse during the week-end as the river began a new rise.

The river had dropped more than two feet in the flood Rossington and Manitoba districts, about 60 miles northwest of Edmonton, but Sunday morning the water rose about eight inches. The water level remained about the same during the night.

Residents of both districts do not expect the water to rise to its peak level of last week, but at the same time expect it to make roads impassable for about another month, unless a rapid drop is seen.

U.S. Tests Indicate Marked Progress

WASHINGTON, May 17.—(BUP)—The White House announced today that recent tests in the Pacific of three atomic weapons of improved design "were successful in all respects."

"The results indicate very substantial progress," the statement said.

The White House statement was issued a half hour after President Truman received a report on the tests from the Atomic Energy Commission.

"The first series of the tests are now completed," the statement said.

"The commission reported that the tests, involving three atomic weapons, each of improved design, were successful in all respects and that the results indicate very substantial progress."

The statement said Mr. Truman generally approved a commission plan to start at once further development based upon information gained from the tests.

VEIL OF SECRECY
The tests were conducted under security provisions of the Atomic Energy Act and information as to scientific results and technical details cannot be made public at this time, the White House said.

The proving ground at Eniwetok in the Marshall Islands also remains closed to unauthorized persons.

Secretary of Defence James Forrestal and the Atomic Energy Commission have authorized military and scientific leaders of the force returning to Honolulu tomorrow to make statements in acknowledgment of services of personnel engaged in the tests.

TEXT OF STATEMENT
Text of the White House statement follows:

"The president today received from the United States Atomic Energy Commission a report on the results of atomic weapons tests conducted at Eniwetok Atoll, in the Marshall Islands. The tests were held pursuant to approval of the president given in June, 1947. The first series of the tests are now completed."

DETROIT, May 17.—(AP)—An unprecedented scene on the United States automotive labor front unfolded today.

For the first time a major automobile manufacturer, Ford, asked its unionized workers to take, in effect, a wage cut.

The proposal, which met a CIO rejection, came against the backdrop of a major strike in the industry and a hint, if not a threat, of a second such walkout.

In one way or another, 800,000 car plant workers across the country were directly involved.

This was the immediate situation in the United Automobile Workers' (CIO) spring drive for a third post-war boost in pay.

1. The Ford Motor Company, providing a cause of "public safety," proposed that its wage "differential" with competitors be eliminated, meanwhile rejecting the UAW's demand for a 30-cent hourly wage increase.

"The bulk of Ford's 107,000 production workers probably would be affected in any reduction of pay rates," the UAW's press is said to be.

UN Commission Drops Atomic Control Plan

LAKE SUCCESS, May 17.—(CP)—The United Nations Atomic Energy Commission decided today to end its two-year effort to agree on world atomic control. The vote was 9 to 2.

Russia and the Soviet Union voted against the suspension, which was proposed originally by the United States, Britain and France.

The move came after the western bloc had been unable to secure enough votes to continue the talks any longer in view of the deadlock between Russia and the commission majority.

GRIMSKY DISAGREES
Andrei Gromyko, Soviet Deputy Foreign Minister, told the 11-member U.N. Atomic Energy Commission he does not agree that further efforts are useless.

"The Soviet Union government stood, stands and will continue to stand for an effective international system of inspection and an effective international system of control," Gromyko said.

He told the commission Russia has no intention of supporting the United States control plan and will continue to press for adoption of the Soviet plan. Six members of the commission have declared themselves in favor of suspending the talks.

Gromyko, in attacking the United States, made these observations:

1. "We see unwillingness on the part of the United States government to prohibit atomic weapons, which is the first task to be implemented on control."

2. "We see unwillingness on the part of the United States to agree to simultaneous control on fuel and installations."

3. "We see unwillingness by the United States government to use nuclear fuel for peaceful purposes."

Stock Price Trend Lower

NEW YORK, May 17.—(AP)—Stock prices turned down today and the pace of recent trading days lost much of its frenzy.

Prices steadied as trading slowed down near noon, but were mostly below Saturday's close.

Traders, eager to turn the paper profits of last week into cash, sent in a flood of over-night orders that put the ticker tape behind in a fast first hour. Some 600,000 shares changed hands. This fell far below Saturday's opening hour of 1,200,000 shares.

Under the profit-taking most leading stocks turned downward. The later rally was led by rails which were the first to firm up after a part of the early losses.

Many of the less active issues held to the upward course started last week.

Volume for the first two hours was 1,270,000 shares, compared with 2,500,000 in Saturday's two-hour session and Friday's first two-hour total of 1,900,000.

Discoverer of Turner Valley Oil Field Dies

CALGARY, May 17.—(CP)—Robert Arthur Brown, 63, discoverer of the Turner Valley crude oil field and a former member of the University of Alberta senate and board of governors, died at his home here today.

Born at Point Levis, Que., in 1886, Brown came to Calgary in 1906 as superintendent of the North West Electrical Company and in 1907 was appointed electrical superintendent for Nelson, B.C. While there he designed and supervised construction of the Bonington Falls dam and power plant.

He returned to Calgary in 1911 as superintendent of the Calgary electric light department and later also headed the Calgary street railway department. He retired from both positions in 1927.

His name ranks high in Alberta oil annals due to his discovery on June 16, 1916, of the crude oil zone at Turner Valley. Up to that time the field had been producing only from the gas tap. Turner Valley Royalties, a well which he directed and in which he was assisted by a handful of other Calgary men, was the first to strike oil at the big field. Under his leadership 23 wells were drilled in the crude oil field.

He was president of Brown, Moyer and Brown Ltd., Federated Petroleum Ltd., Coastal Oil Ltd., and Associated Companies.

Brown also pioneered drilling in the Jumping Pound area where later extensive natural gas resources were discovered.

He retired from all his university of Alberta posts two years ago, including membership on the engineering examining board, which he had held for 20 years.

At the age of 18 he was chairman of the board of examiners of Local No. 1 of the electricians' union in the United States. For a time he was assistant to the famous electrical scientist, Charles Steinmetz.

He designed and installed the first fully automatic mercury ARC rectifier portable sub-station in Calgary in 1929.

Survivors include his widow, Christina; two sons in Calgary, a brother, Thomas W. of Vancouver; six sisters, Miss Florence Brown of Montreal, Mrs. L. B. Temple of Montreal, Mrs. Harriet Webster of New York, Mrs. W. Phillips of Quebec, Mrs. C. P. Plummer of Toronto, and Mrs. James Duncan of Palm Springs, Calif.

Funeral services will be held from Grace Presbyterian Church here Wednesday.

Quebec Top Rank CCF Members Quit

Remain Members of Party But Leave Executive Posts

MONTREAL, May 17.—(CP)—Three top men in Quebec's CCF movement resigned from the party's provincial executive today following an internal squabble over organizational policy.

The three are Dr. J. Cyril Flanagan, chairman of the party's executive, and the Tafters, chairman of the Quebec section's finance committee, and Bill Sauve, provincial treasurer.

It was learned that the internal split in Quebec's Socialist movement followed submission of the three letters of resignation to an executive council meeting Sunday.

While the three CCF officials will no longer serve on the provincial executive, it was emphasized that they are not quitting the party itself, the resignations have nothing to do with party policy, it was said.

The organizational rift developed over the alleged failure of certain executive members to follow a principle agreed upon at last year's provincial convention.

The principle was that each member of the executive council would be obliged to assume "cabinet responsibility" in the charge of various branches of activity.

The convention passed the resolution that any official failing to live up to the principle would be asked to resign and make way for another party member prepared to assume an assigned task.

WORK OR QUIT Flanagan, Tafters and Sauve, the three who have handled the lion's share of CCF organization here, asked certain officials to assume their responsibilities or resign their positions.

The officials in question refused to give way to the request. A vote was called and the executive decided not to act on the Flanagan request. The three resignations followed.

CAIRO, May 17.—(BUP)—The Ministry of National Defence banned all night flights by airplanes over Egyptian territory today after reports from Tel Aviv said Jewish leaders had threatened to bomb Cairo if Egyptian raids against Tel Aviv continued.

Any planes flying over Egypt between 7 p.m. and 3 a.m. will be shot down, the announcement said.

CALL UP RESERVES

At the same time it was announced officially that Egypt would call up all army reserve officers and troops disbanded in the past five years to help strengthen the army for the war against Israel.

Egyptian authorities also seized four American military transport planes at Farouk Field, presumably to strengthen the Egyptian air force.

The planes, awaiting flight to Saudi Arabia, were the property of Trans-World Airlines. They were part of a shipment of six planes purchased by the Saudi Arabian Airlines. Two of the six already had been delivered.

City High School Boy Wins Contest

Will Now Compete For North American Title

It was a close judges' decision, but 15-year-old Bob Lawrence of Edmonton was declared the winner.

A Longview, Washington, on Saturday, Bob was named winner of an oratorical contest at the 14th annual district convention of the Optimist International.

He first tied with Dan Brown, a Portland, Washington, school student.

But a re-check by the judges gave Bob the first prize.

Bob, a student at McCauley high school, won the Alberta elimination contest for the Optimist Club in March.

He left Edmonton last Tuesday to enter the Washington contest, and will return home Tuesday, May 18.

Bob is a member of the Junior Optimist Club of Edmonton.

He resides with his mother, a widow, at 10753 97 street.

Bigger things are in store for the young student.

Late in June he will journey to San Antonio, Texas, to compete with 21 other boys from all across the North American continent in the finals of the Optimist contest.

The 22 boys represent more than 480,000 Optimist boys in Canada and the U.S.

He will be accompanied by J. D. Harvey, who is a member of the Optimist International.

Boys' trips such as these are financed by part of the money from the Optimist Mile of Dixie campaign.

In addition to the trips, prize for the final winning orator will be a gold watch.

5,000 More City Dwellers

Edmonton's population will show an increase of approximately 5,000 over the 1947 census figures.

This prediction was made by civic officials following a survey of census work started last Wednesday on the 1948 census.

Twenty-five additional enumerators started today in complete the annual count of residents.

This will bring to 35 the total of enumerators in the field.

Edmonton's population in 1947 was 118,541. It is expected the 1948 total will be approximately 123,500.

In the past 10 years the city's population has increased by 31,487.

The 1948 population increase is based on the city's higher birth rate and influx of workers employed by oil companies operating in the Leduc field.

"Israel" Recognition Asked By City Jews

Close to 1,000 Edmonton Jews jammed the Talmud Torah hall Sunday night to express thanksgiving for the creation of the State of Israel.

At the mass rally a resolution "urging the Canadian government to be in the vanguard of nations extending recognition to the Jewish state," was unanimously accepted.

The entire Jewish Community turned out for the demonstration in "gratitude to all the nations who, through a sense of historic justice and fairness, have already granted recognition to Israel."

In his address to the gathering L. Pekarsky, city lawyer and vice-president of the Edmonton Zionist Council, dealt mainly with the historical significance of the moment.

"Creation of this new state is the fulfillment of an age-long ideal of Israel to return to Zion, and reconstitute a Jewish state after a lapse of close to 1,900 years," said Mr. Pekarsky.

Another speaker was John D. Dover, MBE, vice-president of the Zionist Organization of Canada.

"For Jews throughout the world, this is a time of mingled emotions," said Mr. Dover.

"As turbulence gives way to peace and harmony, we are confident that ties of friendship and co-operation will be established and grow strong between Israel and members of the British Commonwealth of Nations," he said.

Similar mass demonstrations of Jews were witnessed all over Canada.

Overflow crowds were the order of the day as Canadian Jews gathered to express their thanksgiving.

Copies of the resolution passed at the Edmonton rally Sunday evening will be forwarded to Prime Minister Mackenzie King.

Government by Alibi

Civic government by alibis and excuses will never be ended in Edmonton until some competent outside group of experts is called in to discover and eliminate those bottlenecks in the civic block that stand in the way of progressive action.

Here are Edmonton's paving facts: We have only 75 miles of paved streets as against 425 miles of unpaved streets and 500 miles of unpaved lanes.

No other city of this size on the North American continent is in such wretched condition.

"This deplorable system of streets and lanes is costing the people of Edmonton millions of dollars in damage to furniture and office and factory equipment, in the extra cost of motor vehicle operation, in damage to clothing and in impairment of health."

All these facts were recognized by Harry D. Ainlay in 1945 when he first contested the office of mayor. He promised improvement. He promised a new streets policy.

But when Mayor Ainlay is reminded of these promises in 1948, he responds with a slashing rebuke to the newspaper that reminds him, and a complaint that he is being personally attacked.

His entire reply is a tissue of alibis and excuses and indicates that he is just as bewildered about what happened to his 1945 paving program as anyone else.

He complains about a cement shortage. There is no such shortage. He finds fault with The Bulletin's suggestion about black paving. Black paving was mentioned only as an alternative to cement and its reliability is attested by competent government engineers.

He talks about the non-cement paving on Jasper avenue breaking down when, as a matter of fact, the only non-cement paving ever laid on Jasper was on the south side of the street between 101st and 109th and it was laid 41 years ago.

But the people of Edmonton are not interested in these technical details. They want results. And they feel that civic experts are being paid to overcome difficulties and not to dish them out in the form of alibis.

Other cities have decent streets. Why not Edmonton? Who is lying down on the job?

If Mayor Ainlay cannot discover this all-important fact, it is time outside experts were called in to help him discover it.

Civic government by alibi has gone on long enough.

Doctors for Night Duty

A young father in Sault Ste. Marie, Ontario, is complaining, with good cause, that five medical doctors refused to answer an emergency call to his infant daughter the night she died. A sixth doctor consented to come. But the six-week-old child died ten minutes before he arrived.

It is an abominable thing that medical service should not be available to dying or ailing children.

And yet it is not difficult to understand the viewpoint of the physician who perhaps requires rest for arduous and delicate tasks the next day.

One of the possible solutions to this difficulty, which exists to a greater or lesser degree in every Canadian community, is to ask the doctors themselves to arrange for an emergency panel of medical men who would take turns answering urgent calls during the night and who could be reached through a dispatcher with a well-publicized telephone number.

In that way all doctors could bear a share of the burden of emergency night calls.

Contracts Should Be Sacred

An eastern clergyman describes divorced persons who remarry as "self-confessed adulterers." It is a harsh term that is completely unjust to those who find themselves victims of our muddled laws of marriage and divorce.

It is frequently forgotten that there are two distinct kinds of marriage in Canada. There is a civil marriage, except in the province of Ontario, in which the parties do not necessarily undertake to live together for life. There is the religious or sacramental marriage in which such a promise is definitely made before God.

Except as it affects domestic life, the dissolution of a civil marriage involves the breaking of no pledge and, from the standpoint of the state, involves no moral law. It is no more than the legal obliteration of a legal contract.

The dissolution of a sacramental marriage is opposed by most Christian communities because such a dissolution does involve the breaking of a most solemn pledge.

This is no place for a religious controversy about divorce. But, apart from all religious implications, Canadians should remember that the sanctity of a contract is one of the important bases of the democratic way of life.

To call a remarried divorcee an "adulterer" is entirely beside the point. The pertinent fact about divorce that calls for a revision of the whole situation is that the careless breaking of promises affects the entire ethical structure of Canadian society.

New Jewish State Is Good Thing For World

LAKE SUCCESS.—This will be my last report from this special session of the UN Assembly. It is just three weeks since the delegates of 54 nations met to hear the United States explain why she thought that the partitioning of Palestine was a good thing for the world. Now the U.S. tactic has been overwhelmingly defeated. The United Nations' official position is that the partitioning of Palestine was a good thing for the world.

PHILPOTT came through its most severe test to date.

We can only guess as to what mysterious reasons induced the U.S. government to backtrack on a partition settlement of which it had been the most powerful backer last autumn.

The common gossip among cynical newspapermen and such like was that there had been some kind of secret "deal" between the British, Americans, and oil interests. There are still some ultra hard-boiled gentlemen who declare that the end of the chapter is not yet and that the big powers will still find ways and means of preventing the Jews from getting their long-promised "national home."

Britain Opposed

But all the facts here point in the other direction. It was the delegate from Great Britain, Mr. Creech-Jones, who finally buried the United States attempt to induce the UN to renounce on the provision of November 1947. He was a Canadian delegate, General McNaughton, added a few words which really meant "let's run the U.S. policy and get on with the business of picking up the pieces in Palestine."

Here in New York the Jews and their well-wishers are going ahead with plans for a mammoth open air celebration to honor the recreated nation of Judea which was proclaimed on May 14. There are more Jews in New York than ever in history lived anywhere else over three times more than in the whole of Germany when Hitler came to power. The declaration of Jewish national independence is a big thing for these people, this city, and this country. It is a big thing for all the nations of the world.

I have heard intelligent people argue that the re-establishment of a Jewish state in Palestine will tend to increase, and not decrease, anti-Semitism.

One put it, "the natural counterpart of the slogan, 'Palestine for the Jews,' is 'the Jews for Palestine.'"

This man was not in any sense anti-Semitic. He was simply arguing that if Palestine becomes the core of focus of Jewish-Jewish loyalties, there will be creation of a Jewish national home in Palestine would not end but aggravate the cry that the Jews, even in countries like the U.S.A., are a people apart.

Blessing On Human Family

But, on balance, it seems to me that the recreation of a Jewish state in Palestine will lead to great blessing for all the human family.

Wherever may be the minor disturbances and temporary difficulties of the readjustment, the fact that, after many, many centuries of homelessness, the children of Israel have now found their own feet in the actual soil of their own nation-state, seems to me to hold great promise of great good.

The Jewish "problem" is, and long has been, partly a psychological problem. Wherever they have gone the Jewish people, as a group, have never been able or allowed to feel that "they belonged" in the same sense as have other people.

In my opinion, re-establishment of an out-and-out Jewish nation in Palestine will change that. In their heart of hearts the Jewish people will never feel the haunting fear "whether shall we turn in time of trouble." Every Jew, in every country on earth, will know that the gates of his ancestral home are open to him, in time of need.

Thousands of years ago, the inspired prophet predicted that when at long last the Jewish people came into their "promised land," they would cease "to vex" the peoples of other lands, and vice versa.

That is now here. That is why I hope that Canada, as a nation, is one of the first to hold out to the new Judea, or the revived Israel, or whatever they call it, the hand of friendship.

"Welcome back to your place in the seats of the nations. We hope to include Judea among our friends and allies forever."

Smiles

Bill—"What is the hardest thing you ever did?"

Bill—"Make ten easy payments."

Misses—Mary, look at this figure of Venus. It's covered with dust.

May—Well, ma'am, that's better than no covers at all."

Overheard at a superb-superb reception in the West End of London, where they have their page-books garbed in elaborate costumes, and the women are posed to live up to the supposition of cinema-cathedral ideals.

Two little pages, who are into an argument and one said: "You, you'd yer like to 'ave a sock in the face?"

With that one of the adult functionaries turned on them severely. "You forget you are in uniform," he said solemnly.

LETTERS TO THE EDITOR

Dollar Bills, Russian Rubles

Editor, Bulletin.—I would like to know why you still have writers like Elmore Philpott and Jack Scott? Are their articles worth the space they take up?

I have yet to see either writer place Russia in the role of dictator. They find no fault with what happened to the Czechs or to the Communists who are fighting in Greece or China. Mr. Scott in his articles has no place for Turkey, Greece or Spain.

Mr. Philpott finds fault with everything the U.S.A. does. Not once has he said anything in favor of Mr. Truman, but already his hero is Henry Wallace. I wonder how long these two writers would stay alive behind the iron curtain if they would write of Russia as one of our greatest problems, we still had comparatively large numbers of unemployed in the country.

He further stated that he had checked the figures in Edmonton and Calgary recently and found that there were about 15,000 men and women on the unemployed lists of the two cities. I too, have done this and the figures given me today by the Unemployment Commission of Edmonton are as follows: 2,000 males; 800 females; 24 males and 24 females unemployed at May 6. I am checked with the Unemployment Commission at Red Deer and found that at May 6th 110 males and 19 females were registered as unemployed. This figure included several truckers who were temporarily out of employment. Red Deer also stated that while these figures of unemployment existed, there were 77 vacancies for men and 33 for women.

Immigrants by Philpott

Editor, Bulletin.—It has never been my practice to enter into a controversy through the columns of your valuable newspaper and it is not my desire to do so now. However, my attention was drawn to a letter under the caption "Protests Migration" and over the signature of one, W. A. Harris of Leducville. The Bulletin will be pleased to state that the statements contained therein if they are allowed to go unanswered, I feel that a true statement of facts is necessary.

Mr. Harris stated that he had found to his surprise that the government had adopted a program of bilinguism. He further stated that the government supplies accommodation for such immigrants in the Corona and other similar hotels.

I want to state definitely and emphatically that every immigrant who has arrived in Alberta under our sponsorship has paid his own fare. I want to state further that these same immigrants have paid their own accommodation, whether it be in hotels or elsewhere. The government has not subsidized immigration in any way.

It is true that we have opened an office in Great Britain are encouraging the immigration of Britishers to Alberta.

We have also rendered them physical assistance in securing living accommodation and employment, but this is something very different from the statements made by Mr. Harris. I am pleased to say that British immigrants are being welcomed to this province by employers and others and those who have so far arrived under our sponsorship have had no difficulty in securing employment.

It is further implied that because Calgary and Edmonton have a certain number of unemployed, we should not pursue the immigration policy. Surely he knows that the country always has a certain number of unemployed. Records show that even during the war, when man-power was temporarily out of employment, we still had comparatively large numbers of unemployed in the country.

He further stated that he had checked the figures in Edmonton and Calgary recently and found that there were about 15,000 men and women on the unemployed lists of the two cities. I too, have done this and the figures given me today by the Unemployment Commission of Edmonton are as follows: 2,000 males; 800 females; 24 males and 24 females unemployed at May 6. I am checked with the Unemployment Commission at Red Deer and found that at May 6th 110 males and 19 females were registered as unemployed. This figure included several truckers who were temporarily out of employment. Red Deer also stated that while these figures of unemployment existed, there were 77 vacancies for men and 33 for women.

There was no organization at the Market Square and there was no organization at the Prince of Wales Armours... and we are simply doing the same thing the way the whole thing was staged. Edmonton officials showed too little enthusiasm for the parade. We would like them to know that they will never again get a crowd of 60,000 people out to a band of officials riding by in swanky cars. No sir, it was the parade that was staged. It was a picture of a parade, a spirit of triumph... and a lot of other things.

So once more we say we're disappointed in Edmonton. The Edmonton Exhibition Association and the organization which fostered the mammoth parade in honor of the Edmonton Flyers, Canada's hockey champions.

Disillusioned Edmontonians

Editor, Bulletin.—For some time now I have been depressed by the stand taken by The Bulletin along the proposed route regarding the paving situation.

It is quite evident to the city fathers represented by Poppa that the paving is a matter of money. The problem is how will it be paid for? The city budget is already over-burdened through paying the salaries of dozens of men who are required to sit around a number of their representatives and discuss world problems.

The only possible answer is the tax. Having established this point we run into a vicious circle. The revenue from the tax is used to pay for the improvement of the streets but we cannot invite tourists into the streets in their present condition.

It was at this point that the industrial genius who guides the hand that rules our city came forth with an idea so unique in its cunning that many people failed to grasp its true significance.

A city would build two welcome arches, the idea being that the incoming tourist would be so dazzled by their exquisite beauty that he would be completely blinded to the condition of the streets.

If there is any one who contends that this end could be accomplished more economically I defy him to produce a better method.

FROM TODAY'S NEWS

The Royal Family is adapting itself with great facility to the social, political and economic changes of the post-war world—a really remarkable performance, considering its background of pomp and splendor.

The Royal Family, more than any other, is making itself a part of the everyday life in Britain. Of course this democratic change is not new to the present occupants of the Throne and their children, for recent generations have known the life of the British monarchy.

There are several reasons for this striking change. One naturally is hard times, for Britain's economic crisis is grave. However, I believe the cause lies mainly in the politico-social upheaval which has swept wide reaches of the globe, including the British Isles.

Britain's Labor government is leaving its stamp on John Bull's life. Even if times were easier congratulatory exhibition for the Flyers. Twenty units, made up for the majority of "big shot" officials, who turned out just to "show off their swanky new cars."

Where, we would like to know, were the policemen who were supposed to be clearing the traffic from Jasper avenue? In front of Peder's furniture store, the cars were parked too deep.

What were the Royal Canadian Mounted Police, in their bright red coats, riding their horses... a "mud" in every decent Canadian parade? Where were the beautiful floats that were advertised? We can look out of our windows any day of the week and see new cars driving by... and yes, lots of them will have the same people in them.

There was no organization at the Market Square and there was no organization at the Prince of Wales Armours... and we are simply doing the same thing the way the whole thing was staged. Edmonton officials showed too little enthusiasm for the parade. We would like them to know that they will never again get a crowd of 60,000 people out to a band of officials riding by in swanky cars. A man that flattereth his neighbour spreadeth a net for his feet. Proverbs 29: 16.

New Look Is Not For Lusty Mae

Some very important persons in the garment industry have decided that if it can be done with Myrtle it can be done with Murgatroyd. Yes sir, there's a "New Look" for men, too, and mister, it will do you no good to stare out the window or study your nails. They're over you and they mean business.

It's called "The Bold Look." An ensemble designed to make any assistant bookkeeper look like a big, bad buccaneer, and the copy-writers are already at our throats with their sharp-edged slogans.

I wouldn't risk giving you my interpretation of the new Bold Look. Got the old Lumpy Look myself. And so the following description, transcribed from an authority on the subject, tailor of note and regular reader of Enquire:

"The Bold Look is just what it says. Shirts will have the wide Windsor collar. Ties will be heavy and with a large knot. Suits will feature very large check patterns with the shoulders a little squarer and clean hold lines. Slightly shorter sleeves to reveal French shirt cuffs and suit links. Trousers very much shorter. Socks in solid, bright patterns. Shoes more squared-toe and hats with higher crowns." End of quote.

There will be a ten-second pause while we all picture ourselves in this attire, with embarrassed little smiles or guffaws whatever our many moods dictate. It might be wise, too, to contemplate being found dead in this costume.

As it happened, my authority was dressed in a reasonable facsimile of the Bold Look for professional reasons, and the overall impression was somewhat similar to a bright explosion.

No Appeal To The Male Mind

It is the opinion that the Bold Look is a last cause for reasons I will detail at interminable length below, and yet psychologically it couldn't have come at a more opportune time.

As I have said, the Bold Look, though it is only exonerating padding in false shoulders, this is the time, if a Windsor collar and a huge-knotted tie could give strength to faint hearts, if giant neckties and a French cuff could raise the hopes of the timid, the Bold Look would be a gift of heaven.

Indeed I like to think that a city full of men in such positive and confident attire, each wider and higher domed and solid on his bold, square-topped shoulders, would have some effect on the sagging spirits of us all.

But it is not to be. Males, the poor boys, have little appetite for display and demand only that they be made as inconspicuous as possible. Witness the magnificent lack of response to the street car posters assuring the stunted passengers that if it can be done with Myrtle it can be done with Murgatroyd. Yes sir, there's a "New Look" for men, too, and mister, it will do you no good to stare out the window or study your nails. They're over you and they mean business.

It was only last week that I overheard two weary workmen discussing this sign. "Look at that," one of them said, "did you ever know a down and out bum who didn't wear a hat?"

It is precisely the kind of logic rarely found in the female mind, which does the new look for men. The male vanity is a full-blown thing, perhaps even more perverse than that of the female, but it rarely stampedes. Most men go through their lives dedicated to attracting as little attention as possible. It would not be far-fetched to suggest that a new Mouse Look would succeed where the Bold Look would surely fail.

Even with full-grown, mature, adult men the purchase of a new suit is often a subject of hoisting. The man who is a fellow-worker and man is always more at ease in his old blue and shiny suit on the seat than he is in something right off the rack.

Hard To Camouflage

The real death knell to the Bold Look, of course, is the fact that a man's figure is terribly hard to camouflage.

It is no secret to any future reader of the women's magazines that the ladies are always as they seem, that the full curve is frequently an artifice. It is not so with the male. Full curve is simply not possible with father and his little patch of old lace, narrow shoulders.

Nothing is quite so plaintive as the sound of a man's shoulders, built-up suit coat, bravely giving the world an impression of being a pair of loose, pipe stem arms, and a joint with all the aesthetic value of a piston rod, is enough to give it the kiss of death.

Yet it pains me to render such a harsh verdict for "The Bold Look." The Bold Look is a last cause for reasons I will detail at interminable length below, and yet psychologically it couldn't have come at a more opportune time.

As I have said, the Bold Look, though it is only exonerating padding in false shoulders, this is the time, if a Windsor collar and a huge-knotted tie could give strength to faint hearts, if giant neckties and a French cuff could raise the hopes of the timid, the Bold Look would be a gift of heaven.

Taken out of the hands of the tailors and put in the hands of the men, the Bold Look is a style that all of us could wear with pride.

But I am not any too hopeful of it catching on. I would not let this opinion bother me, for I am sure that a man who never wears a hat.

Convocation Procedure Changes Are Announced

Two-day convocation ceremonies for University of Alberta graduates have resulted in several changes in convocation procedure. The Bulletin learned today from Varsity officials.

Practically an entirely different program will be held on each convocation day, Tuesday and Wednesday.

Tuesday afternoon in McDougall United Church, Premier Ernest Manning will receive an honorary doctor of laws degree. Premier Manning will also deliver convocation address to graduating students.

Degree will be presented to the premier by Mr. Justice H. H. Farlee, chairman of the university board of governors.

Wednesday afternoon, Justice Farlee will receive the honorary degree. President Robert Newton will present the degrees.

Dr. Newton will deliver the convocation address to graduating students.

About 350 graduates will attend ceremonies each day.

In past years, graduates had the hood of their particular faculty placed over their shoulders on the convocation platform. This year, to speed diploma presentation because of the great number of graduating students, each student will wear his hood when he goes to the platform before the Varsity chancellor.

Different representatives of the church will pronounce invocation at the ceremonies.

Brother Prudent of St. Joseph's College, will officiate on Tuesday afternoon.

Venerable Archbishop S. P. Tacikabery, of the Edmonton diocese

ALL-OUT WAR ON MOSQUITOES IS UNDERWAY

Total war on mosquitoes within the city limits started Monday.

Armed with power sprays eight employees of the city's parks department blasted the McKerns Lake area with deadly DDT and crank case oil.

Additional teams will be started this week in an offensive against the larger breeding grounds of these pests. Jack Miller, acting superintendent of the department stated.

Mopping up operations on the smaller breeding areas within the city will be carried out by 28 community leagues.

Arms and munitions for the total war have been donated by British American Oil Co. Ltd. The company is providing crank case oil, drums and cans free of charge.

Miller said that while the campaign will lessen the mosquito nuisance the city will not be free of the pests until extermination operations can be carried out in districts surrounding the city.

Her name was inadvertently omitted from the list in Saturday's Bulletin.

Crews Gain Ground On Atlantic Well

Crews battling to gain control of the well Atlantic well No. 3 in the Leduc oil field reported "slowly gaining ground" today.

The runaway well has been operated by the Alberta Petroleum and Natural Gas Conservation Board since Friday.

Master valves and blowout preventers have been successfully installed at the well-head. Chairman E. H. McKinnon of the Conservation Board said this morning.

"It will be a week or 10 days before flow lines are installed and a bridge of shale knocked from the old drill hole," Mr. McKinnon said.

TO STOP CRATERING

It is hoped to have the cratering stopped within a week "if everything goes well," the board chairman added.

Oil and gas have been bubbling up through graters or fissures in the ground for the last two weeks after well casing broke.

Derrieks have been moved to the site of two directional wells that may have to be drilled at angles to the porous zone below the well under control.

The directional wells will be drilled only if measures to bring the well well itself back into production fail.

PIPELINE ACTIVE

In the meantime more than 5,000 barrels of oil from storage tanks around the well were carried by pipeline to Nisku for the 24-hour period ending Sunday night.

FOOD HANDLERS TO BE X-RAYED

Employers of food handlers, waitresses and cooks are being appealed to by Edmonton Chest X-ray officials to have their staffs checked for TB.

Clinic is now operating on the Market Square from 9:30 a.m. to 8:30 p.m.

Grand total of X-rays taken to date is 87,169.

Films interpreted from April 26 to May 11 totalled 5,453, with five probable active cases of TB revealed.

There is an estimated 65,000 barrels of oil in open pits within a 10-acre area surrounding the well.

It is now believed the well is not producing at quite the 10,000 barrels estimated earlier.

Dry weather and winds have assisted the crews struggling to bring the well under control.

An area four miles square around the well is sealed off to the general public.

99's Lead Big Four By Skinning Cubs

CALGARY, May 17. — (CP) — Smashing out 6-4 and 4-2 victories behind the steady hurling of Pitchers John Carpenter and Joe Kanik, Calgary's Purty 99 club swept its entire opening series with Edmonton Cubs of the Alberta Big Four Baseball League over the week-end as crowds of 1,000 and 2,500 were drawn to Buffalo Stadium.

Purty won the opening game of the series Friday night 13-0. Dick Noon dished out a homer in the third inning Saturday night to give Purty an easy 6-4 win. Con-necting solidly with a pitch by young Al Purvis of Cubs, last year in Calgary junior ranks, Noon sent the ball over the left field fence to drive in four runs—himself and a capably leading of three other Purty runners.

South Puck Loop Boosts 5 Entries

MACLEOD, May 17. — (CP) — Five teams will compete in the southern Alberta Junior Hockey League next year it was announced Sunday night by President V. C. W. Stanley of High River following a week-end business meeting at Macleod.

Drumheller, those representatives said artificial ice would be installed by opening of next season, was added to the circuit which already includes Lethbridge, Bellevue, Medicine Hat and Calgary.

The 'KNOTHOLE GANG' was out in full force for Saturday's Big Four lid-lifter at Renfrew Park. Ever since baseball was invented youthful fans have exercised this privilege.

McRae to Stick To Senior Hockey

WINNIPEG, May 17. — (CP) — The winning dervish of Winnipeg hockey, Don McRae — is headed for eastern Canada and the greenest hockey pastures in Canada. However, the redhead says he is not going to play "too much" hockey — that the trip is strictly a business venture.

An engineering student at University of Manitoba, McRae has conceded a three-year sabbic by Con-Smythe, president of the National Hockey League's Toronto Maple Leafs, McRae has put the canny Smythe off with—"after I graduate."

He intimated that Maple Leaf officials know nothing of his decision. However, he admitted that he would like to attend Leaf's fall training session and possibly line-up with their senior farm club—Toronto Marlboros—"if I can get the time off work."

Anavet Soccerites Toppie RAF 3-0

The buzz in Edmonton soccer circles is "Anavets is the team to beat." And Sunday morning Coach James Kinsman's boys were just what as they dumped RAF 3-0 in a fast-moving exhibition match on the Clarke Stadium grounds.

Rickey Richardson, who played with York Rovers (a third division English team) two years back, headed Anavets into a 1-0 lead before the first-half curtain fell. There was no stopping Anavets in the last half as Harold Hall, outside right, and Ted Lewis, outside left, both found the target in rapid succession.

Although it was only a play-off game, the boys showed plenty of mid-season form.

Stephen (Bing) Merluk is on the road to greater things. It was learned Sunday the speedy winger, who paced Edmonton Flyers in the goals department along the Allan Cup playoff list, has been placed on Montreal Canadiens players list.

Addition of Merluk to the Habits' chain brings the total of 1947-48 Flyers headed for Montreal to three. Provisionally, Coach Anderson and James (C) McPherson are expected to be on the Montreal roster.

Anderson is on the reserve list of the Cincinnati club, a moment the Cincinnati club is merely "on paper" and does not expect to become a playing unit until 1949-50.

Big Plans For LUC

MONTREAL, May 17. — (CP) — Cincinnati is a long way from Montreal but the opening of a new arena there next season will make Canadiens' hockey empire the biggest in the world—if it isn't that already.

Shooters in Top Form Despite Tricky Wind

A brisk, tricky cross-wind tossed the "birds" helter-skelter, but shooters of the Edmonton Gun Club demonstrated that they had not lost much of the dexterity attained last season.

It was the first outing of the season and 65 members and visitors were in mid-season form, blasting 25 straight at skeet and 23 out of 25 at traps. Bob Turner turned in a creditable performance at skeet with 23 and Babe Gaucher was next with 22.

Walter Murdoch, Bill Hoadley and Pat St. Peter scored 24's to lead the trap shooters. A novelty shoot is planned for May 24 and shooting will continue Tuesdays and Fridays. Following are the leading scorers:

Eskimo, Buffalo Nines Break Even In Week-End Ball

Big Nine-Run Inning Gives Visitors 10-9 Win Sunday

Young Don Simon, making his first appearance in Big Four Baseball League company, learned all about the school of hard knocks at Renfrew Park Sunday afternoon.

Tossed into the fray in a relief role after Doug Darrah, starting pitcher for Ed Morris' Eskimos had blown sky high, the 17-year-old right-hander out of the Junior Circuit, served up a home run toss to "Chuck" Restell, outfielder of Calgary Buffaloes.

Particularly painful was the fact that the bases were loaded at the time and while the ball arched high over the right field wall the jubilant Restell chased teammates Carl Mori, Jim Gibson and "Chuck" Strouger into the counting house ahead of him.

In all Buffs struck for nine runs in that one frame in one of the most thunderous barrages in the 18-year history of Renfrew Park. Later the Calgarians suffered a bad case of the staggers but nevertheless weathered a persistent Eskimo drive for a 10-9 triumph.

The thin-as-a-whisker victory enabled Buffs to snail an even break in their two-game series with Eskimos. The locals, behind the steady southpaw elbowing of Ed Belter, came through with an 8-4 victory Saturday night as the curtain went off officially.

Close to 2,500 took in the opener, played in cool weather. The Sabbath hit-parade attracted upwards of 3,000. Calgarians of play was distinctly high class considering the limited spring training periods of the squads.

Belter ON SPORT

By STAN MOHER, Editor

The Lid Came Off in Fine Style

Off the calibre of play served up at Renfrew Park in those Saturday-Sunday huckle de bucks between Eskimos and Calgary Buffaloes the boo birds who follow the Big Four dogs are in for an interesting summer.

The boys went about their chores with a good deal more precision than anyone had reason to expect. After all 10 days' training, for the most part in cool, damp weather is hardly fit preparation for a pennant grind.

Certain of the newcomers with both squads showed to advantage. Tommy Kennedy, who patrolled what Sam Timmins calls 'central field' for the lefts in the Saturday game, showed that he can go and get 'em in fine style. Gene Perani hit the ball hard Sunday afternoon. In the camp of the Buffaloes Catcher Carl Mori looks like a real acquisition. He can throw. He shapes up like a good stickler. Besides the Californian is a real holler guy, reminding of Tony Lollo, peppert receiver of Yanks in the war years.

'Chuck' Restell, from Victoria semi-pro ranks, came through with that grand slam homer off the green kid, Don Simon. Shortstop Strouger looms as a good field, no hit operator.

It isn't hard to sympathize with Simon. After all that is a mighty tough spot he found himself in when Doug Darrah handed over the ball. The boy will have other, better opportunities to show what he can do.

He Hadn't Ought To Do This

Ed (Lefty) Belter had little trouble stopping the visitors in the series opener. The little southpaw was plenty quick in the early innings and his curveball was particularly troublesome for the lefts and hitters. There was one big flaw in the Belter performance, apart from his slight retreat in the eighth frame. Several times he had batsmen in that two and nothing spot only to come in there with the pitch and give up a base-knock. This is rather very bad procedure by the sharper members of the Pitchers' Guild.

Frank Gonzales got away in heartening style. The dark-eyed San Francisco infielder clicked for six hits in 10 trips and was faultless, to say nothing of fervent, affid while handling 10 chances without a blot.

At second base Bill Price was... Bill Price. Nuff sed! Ralph Morgan banged away in lusty style with that big war club of his.

Eskis shaped up as game fish in that upstream comeback that just fell short Sunday afternoon.

Why the Tobacco Road Language?

So much for the Pollyanna stuff. On the debit side of the course was the showing of Cubs at Calgary against the league champion Purdy 99. However, Morrie Hawkey has been added to the pitching staff, as of Sunday, and more reinforcements are promised.

Reports from the south have it that Jack Bartlett, Cubs' shortfielder, was impressive defensively. What Manager Laurel Harney needs, like he does both his eyes, is a couple of potent bat-wielders.

In the two contests at Renfrew Park there was far too much filthy language indulged in by several of the performers. It goes without saying that Henry Roche, president of the Big Four, is a cinch to crack down hard in several places if the loud-mouths don't tone down their utterances.

It's only Leo Durocher who is so certain that nice guys finish last.

The park was a treat for sore eyes when the lights went on Saturday night. In the grass infield alone the stadium heads have added a real touch of class.

And finally there's the case of Ken Samis. In the Saturday clash he came up with what at first was feared to be a broken finger. X-rays showed no more than a 'bad sprain'. So there was Samis, big as life, carrying on Sunday as though a mangled digit was all in a day's work. Here's a gent who doesn't scare easy.

3 'Ifs' in Proposed Junior Hockey League

WINNIPEG, May 17. — (CP) — There's a chance Canada may see a new inter-provincial junior hockey loop operating next year—provided three conditions are met.

Junior hockey moguls representing the Moose Jaw Canucks, Regina Pats, Brandon Wheat Kings, and the three Winnipeg clubs—Monarchs, Black Hawks and Canadians—met Sunday to discuss the formation of an inter-provincial league.

George Vogan, president of the Canucks, is the prime mover. Pats and Wheat Kings string along with him. Monarchs and Canadians are cool toward the idea. The Black Hawks have displayed a "show us" attitude.

Chances for the new loop, depend on financial arrangements with their rink. If the Manitoba Amateur Hockey Association gives its blessing, and if it can be shown that the clubs can make money by entering the proposed set-up.

Winnipeg's part in the deal would call for each of the city's three teams to make two trips into Saskatchewan. In turn, Pats and Wheat Kings would play twice against each Winnipeg team by making double trips—meeting two Winnipeg clubs on one trip and Brandon on the other.

MINIMUM COSTS
This arrangement would cut to the minimum the travelling costs

Gord Watt Opens S.S. Ball Circuit

Honorary Mayor Gordon Watt heaved the first ball at the South Side Intermediate Men's Fastball League burst out of 1948 wrappings Sunday at South Side Athletic Grounds. And in keeping with opening day ceremonies across the nation, Frank Corones, prominent Seona business man, took a cut at the Watt delivery.

In the first contest of a double-header South Side Business Men edged Prudhams by a cyclone, 2-1. It remained for South Side Legion to fire the heavy artillery for the first time in the athletic grounds this year as they walloped W. W. Arcade 21-9 in the second game.

Some 400 spectators attended the inaugural of Bill Runge's thriving South Side circuit.

NHL Prexy Mum On Puck Scandal

MONTREAL, May 17. — (CP) — Clarence Campbell, president of the National Hockey League, said Saturday the time "is not imminent" when he can make any disclosures regarding last winter's hockey scandal.

As a result of an investigation by Michigan authorities into gambling operations in Detroit at that time, Campbell ordered the outright expulsion of Billy Taylor of New York Rangers and the indefinite suspension of Don Gallinger of Boston Bruins.

"At the moment I am confident there will be nothing before or immediate after the NHL meeting in June," Campbell said.

Sports Meeting

Federation of Community Leagues will hold a sports meeting in the USO Hall Tuesday at 8 p.m., and all communities wishing to enter baseball or football leagues are requested to have their entries in the hands of officials by Tuesday night.

Aussies Score Phenomenal 721

LONDON, May 17. — (Reuters) — A record crowd of 16,000 saw the Australian cricket team score the phenomenal total of 721 all out in six hours by the close of play at Southview on Saturday on the first day of their match against Essex.

ANOTHER SHIPMENT of Edmonton-owned horses headed south to Calgary Sunday afternoon. Included were Lee Williams' Withernis and close pal, Annie Triple Crown, brought in $91,870 at Jimmie while the entry made $75,200 at Jamaica for a total of $167,170.

Along the Shed Row

More than 40 thoroughbreds, including the sprints of trainers Earl Robertson and 'Casey' Jones, headed for Calgary Sunday afternoon. The four-footed speedsters were loaded aboard palace cars along about 3:30 o'clock and were shortly on their way.

By Monday night, with the departure of the Kingsway stable string and several more, the stalls at the Exhibition oval will be pretty well empty until the first race meeting here in July.

In Calgary the Edmonton-owned horses will become part of a grand lot of close to 500 equines pending for the 1949 prairie turf opener next Saturday. For several weeks the steeds have been pouring into the southern Alberta centre and only Sunday it was announced that the first shipment had arrived from United States.

Among the newcomers were such good ones as Bank Club, Conexia, No Count and Cadmium.

Owners are pointing for the Calgary meeting from as far away as Agua Caliente and San Francisco. There's every chance that the largest number of horses in the history of Victoria Park will be on hand to inaugurate a 79 day season that will wind up in Winnipeg, Sept. 12.

Jim Jackson's star-studded stable from Winnipeg is expected any day. Trainer Bill Trevenan has such popular favorites as Brockings already on the ground as Charlie Roe, assistant manager of Minaki, Rockwood Jean, Silent Flame (once-upon-a-time prime Edmonton favorite) and the good three-year-old, Fair Shake.

Great things are expected of Air Cadeit, Hienaway and Spangled Belle by their Edmonton owners. All three were added to capital city strings last autumn. J. J. Cowan, ex exercise boy on western tracks, again will train for Dr. Myers of Roseville.

A $54,000 melon will be cut up by the horsemen during the 14-day Calgary meet. George Schilling is returning for his 24th season as presiding steward on the prairies. Among racing officials already on the ground are Charlie Roe, assistant manager of the R. James Speers Corporation, and Lou Davies, who compiles the popular form charts. The latter, always a hard luck guy, won't be in the city.

Pagan Star, Alberta Derby winner in 1944, and last year's game winner, Knight Pilot, will start in Calgary.

Monday Nite Bowlers End Successful Season

The Monday Nite Mixed Bowling League joined other city trundlers in the banquet club Saturday night at the Corona.

Hee! Turvey, popular president of the league for the past nine years, was in the chair.

It was also 'presentation night'—sharpshooting trundlers who struck the pins with monotonous regularity during the season playoffs.

Tops in this select group was Ben Hoffstetter, who rolled the best men's average of 249, high single game of 398 and set a club record with a lofty 1,045 score. Marie Sangster also split the pins at a blistering pace. She capped the ladies' high average with 242, and rolled the best single game of 498.

Shirley Holland had the distinction of bowling the highest ladies' triple of the season, carding a nifty 1,011.

Highlight of the presentations came when president Turvey awarded miniature pins to each of the 14 trundlers who represented Edmonton at the western Canada tournament in Winnipeg recently.

On the receiving end were Vern Mohs, Les Foster, Jim Rutherford, Eddie Oberu, Ben Hoffstetter, Wyn Hall, Ralph Jones, Marie Sangster, Marg Asquith, Mary Haining, who was credited with rolling the only perfect game in Edmonton, Betty Gilbertson, Alice Johnston, Guy Wilson and Vi Foster.

President Turvey also was the recipient of a small pin, a memento of his faithful service as head of the league.

Monday night bowlers rolled 381 triples in the 700's, 88 over 800 and 16 above 900. Three were Ernie Ford, Don Cavanagh, Presty

Calumet Makes Biggest Killing In Turf History

Starry Citation Leads Way With $91,870 Preakness Win

BALTIMORE, May 17. — (AP) — The Calumet stable stock is at a new high after Saturday's coup which swept the Preakness with Citation and the Gallant Fox with Faultless and Fervent.

That was the biggest killing in horse racing history as Arcaro's stable's earnings in one day is concerned. Citation, a stronger bet than ever to take the mythical Triple Crown, brought in $91,870 at Jimmie while the entry made $75,200 at Jamaica for a total of $167,170.

MAGIC FORMULA
It was a new feather in the already well decorated halls of the Jones boys, who are the cooks or Calumet's magic formula. Father Ben Jones saddled Faultless and Fervent while son Jimmy was in Baltimore with their star three-year-olds.

Under the direction of these two, Calumet is fast coming as close as it is possible to having a monopoly on turf honors.

In the last seven years Calumet has been top stable owner at five times. Last year's $1,402,436 setting a record.

And they're loaded again for Saturday's fast race showed. About the only question remaining seems to be how good can they be.

Citation now will be shipped to Belmont to join the rest of the powerful Calumet string and where it is virtually a foregone conclusion he will win the stakes on June 12.

When Citation got the cluster of Preakness black-eyed Susans for Saturday's victory, all that was for fans to speculate about was his greatness in comparison with other turf immortals.

The three colts he beat couldn't even come close to making it a race. Jockey Eddie Arcaro took him out in front at the start, tapped him twice to keep from falling asleep from boredom and at the end of the 1 3/16 miles he was loping six lengths to the good.

The better colts' even better, thrill out of the long shot Volcanic Forge coming in second. There was betting on and that amount of $2,200.

The 32,300 fans made Boverf, who came in third, a winner Saturday and last-place Better-Self had the next best of the little support that was left.

Walcott Floors 2 Sparring Mates

GREENLOCK, N.J., May 17. — (AP)—Jersey Joe Walcott knocked down two sparring partners Saturday night in a double bout.

Walcott sent Austin Johnson of Atlantic City down for a five-point fight with a right to the jaw. He floored Billy Norris of Philadelphia for an eight-count with a left hook to the midsection.

Jersey Joe scaled 200 pounds even, six over his best fighting weight.

PICKED WRONG CAR BROTHERS ARE FINED

Ernest Martel, Edmonton, picked the wrong car to crowd into the curb Friday night—it was the police prowler car.

In court Saturday he was fined $15 and costs or 30 days on a dangerous driving charge.

Andrew Martel, a brother who was a passenger in the truck with Ernest, drew a $20 fine for being intoxicated.

Constables Ron Hooper and Donald "Doc" McNaughton said they were driving south on 96 street and when near 102nd avenue the truck came straight toward them on the wrong side of the road.

To avoid a collision the police car had to be swerved right into the curb.

The constables pursued the truck and arrested the pair.

Dominion President J. A. Tupper of Edmonton summarized activities of the parent association during the past year.

The society succeeded in getting private bills passed at the legislature of the Saskatchewan legislature incorporating the organization in that province.

Societies are now incorporated in every Canadian province with the exception of the Maritimes, Mr. Tupper said.

The Dallison cup was presented to Past President W. A. Plowman on behalf of the Edmonton society for greatest increase in membership during 1947.

President Humphries announced there is a good chance of Alberta getting the next annual convention of the Dominion association to be held in 1949.

If the invitation to convene in Edmonton is accepted, the convention will be held in Banff.

Shortage of Nails Due To Lag In Production

Looters Steal Diamond Ring

Loot ranging from machine parts to diamond rings was obtained by weekend marauders.

Mavis Appleton, 11238 88 avenue, told police a diamond ring was stolen from her at the Northwest Air Command swimming pool.

A traveller for a city electrical firm reported theft of refrigerator from outside the Union Bus depot Friday.

A box of tools was taken from a truck owned by Ralph L. Hawes, which was parked on 104 avenue near 102 street. Thieves gained entry by breaking of a door handle.

Lawrence Galavan, 10988 122 street, told police his bicycle was taken from the yard of St. Andrew's School Friday.

Police discovered early today three wire workers today.

The door was found open at 4 a.m.

Nothing was reported missing.

Rail Strike Ballots Here

Railway strike ballots are being distributed to nearly 1,000 Edmonton railway workers today.

Ballots are part of the nationwide strike vote being taken among employees of Canadian railways.

Strike-vote was decided upon May 4 by 18 international railway unions after a federal conciliation board recommended wage increase of seven cents an hour.

Unions had asked a 35-cent per hour increase.

Doing the rounds, Edmonton chairman of the Canadian Brotherhood of Railway Employees, told 'Ballo' today that strike ballots arrived in Edmonton Friday.

Ballots will be distributed to Edmonton railway employees during the week between 900 and 1,000 employees are expected to vote.

Deadline for return of the ballots to Western Canada union headquarters in Winnipeg is May 31.

Almost all railway employees except locomotive engineers and some of the workers in mechanical shops are included in the strike ballot.

Montgomery Branch Canadian Legion will not take any active part in Empire Day services in Edmonton churches on Sunday, May 23.

Officers of the organization are likely to be attending the celebration of the Dominion command of the Legion which is being held in St. John's, Newfoundland.

Legion members were urged to attend church services with other veterans on Sunday.

Regular meeting of the branch was held in the Memorial Hall Sunday.

Rev. E. J. Bailey, new pastor of First Baptist church and chaplain with the Royal Canadian Mounted Police, was a visitor at the meeting and renewed friendships with members.

Business discussion of the meeting centered around assistance to the South Side Legion branch for the construction of a Legion building in that section of the city.

Weather Continues Employment Bar

Edmonton's unemployment figure dropped by 250 during the past week, according to figures released today by the Dominion Bureau of Statistics.

Unemployed males at the end of the week stood at 4,815, compared with 5,065 for the week previous, while the number of unemployed females was 524 as compared to 513 the previous week.

Continued unseasonable weather prevents a sharp decline in the number of unemployed, Mr. Pater said.

The number of unfilled male vacancies increased from 485 to 517 during the past week. At the same time the number of female vacancies dropped from 480 to 458.

Increased Manufacture Not Equal to Demand

There is no "gray market" in nails in Edmonton. The acute shortage experienced here stems from production lag and not from artificial agencies.

This is the considered opinion of officials of the Edmonton Builders' Exchange, building contractors and hardware dealers.

Charge has been made by the Winnipeg House Builders' Association that there is a "gray market" existing in that city, and representations have been made to the Dominion government, the only source to remedy the situation. A "gray" market is a withholding market.

It was alleged by the Winnipeg organization that similar markets existed in Calgary, Edmonton and Toronto.

There is an acute shortage of nails in Edmonton.

Distributing houses are on a quota. In turn, supply in the district contractors on a quota basis to ensure equitable distribution.

The nail supply is not sufficient to meet local requirements, distributors say.

Several local contractors have secured supplies of American nails through eastern brokerage houses.

These nails are approximately double the price of the Canadian nails when freight and duty have been paid.

In March last the Canadian Construction Association informed members that wire nail and spike construction in Canada would be increased by 45ths of one per cent.

INCREASE NOT ENOUGH
This increase cannot possibly take care of the increased construction program visible for the 1948 building season, builders say.

Contracts let in 1948 for home construction throughout the Dominion are double that of 1947.

In March the manufacture of barbed wire in Canada was suspended because the material could be diverted to nail making.

Output of nails has increased since last year and in March 142,000 tons of nails were distributed compared with 130,000 in the same month last year.

Seeding General By Week-End

Given warm drying weather seeding should be under way in the Edmonton district by the end of this week.

A crop report issued by the Alberta Pacific grain company this morning said seeding in the triangle bounded by the Peace River, the line Edmonton-Calgary-Drumheller would be behind the rest of the province.

The land in sections of southern and eastern Alberta is already dry enough to work and about 25 per cent of the crop is in the ground.

Seeding in the Peace River district may start Wednesday or Thursday, according to the report.

Britisher Plans Alberta Survey

A British representative of six large and "innumerable" small investors on his way to Alberta has landed in New York.

Hon. A. J. Hooke, minister of economic affairs, said Friday the British representative would be spending short time in the United States before he came on to Alberta.

The minister would not reveal the name of the agent, nor of the companies he represents until a later date, but indicated the announcement would be made later.

On his arrival the agent will conduct a survey of Alberta resources, markets and transportation facilities with a view to the establishment of new industries in this province.

Arm Broken But Fined Too

Charges of creating a disturbance and resisting arrest added a $15 penalty to a woman who had suffered a broken arm in a restaurant fracas April 25.

It all began when police attempted to arrest Hamlin Fehr, no fixed address, in a 97 street cafe.

The woman, Marjorie Brown, 11558 95 street, objected as he began to create a disturbance, so police arrested her too.

Then Fehr objected, and charged out of the patrol wagon to her aid. In the resulting battle, the woman's arm was broken.

In police court she was fined $10 and costs for creating a disturbance and $5 and costs for resisting arrest.

Similar charges against the man were dismissed.

Hopes Of Peace In Meat Strike

SOUTH ST. PAUL, May 17.—(AP)—Non-strikers passed through picket lines without incident at major packing plants here today under protection of National Guardsmen.

Absence of new violence strengthened hopes for settlement of the long and bitter meat strike. Union and management leaders already agreed to reopen direct negotiations.

Hundreds of employees heeded a call by Swift and Co. that they return to work today. Pickets hurled slurs of "scab" and strikebreakers but made no attempt to stop them.

Strikers also stood aside to permit truckloads of livestock to enter the stockyards, reopening for limited business after having been closed several days by pickets.

Smaller numbers of workers also entered the Armour plant here, the Cudahy plant at nearby Newport, and the Wilson plant at Albert Lea, 100 miles to the south.

Swift and Co. expected about 750 workers back on the job today.

Britain May Slash Canadian Imports

LONDON, May 17.—(CP)—The Sunday Observer says yesterday in front-page news story that if Sir Stafford Cripps, chancellor of the exchequer, thinks that ERP aid in its final form is unlikely to stop the drain on British reserves "he may hesitate to cut imports from the western hemisphere."

The paper adds: "Ministers will probably first turn their attention to food imports from Canada. It is already known that they are most reluctant to import eggs, bacon and cheese from Canada and, if a decision to cut imports is made, they would undoubtedly want to start with these."

It is possible even that might not be sufficient to stop the drain. In that case, the ministers would have no choice but to reduce imports of raw materials from the hard currency areas. Imports of timber and non-ferrous metals would probably be the first to be considered."

U.S. Sergeant On Moscow Embassy Staff Won't Return

WASHINGTON, May 17.—(AP)—The United States embassy in Moscow reported late last night that Sgt. James McMillin, on the military attaché's staff, has refused to return to the United States.

The action was ascribed by the embassy to an infatuation for the Russian wife and her soldier.

Reporters were told that McMillin, who is 21, was exploited by a "sophisticated Soviet agent" regardless of any other explanation, which might be given later in Moscow.

Winners Show Talents At McDougall Concert

By Frances Geddes
Outstanding Edmonton musicians, winners in last week's Edmonton district musical festival, presented their varied talents in concert at McDougall Church Saturday evening.

Many heard themselves announced as winners of scholarships and trophies by Horbert Turner, secretary-treasurer of the Edmonton branch of the Alberta Musical Festival Association.

The test of any young artist's skill and poise is in presenting himself to the public. To a packed house Saturday night, these performers justified the high marks given them by adjudicator Max Pirani.

ARTISTIC MERIT
Every performance had artistic merit from that given by the five-year-olds of the Edmonton College Kindergarten rhythm band to the more exacting ones of choristers and soloists. It is unfortunate that the length of the program would not permit the audience from hearing it to its conclusion.

The Hamilton trophy for the most artistic performance in senior choral classes was presented by Howard Stutchbury to the Cavenish Ladies' Choir directed by Leonard Betts.

Zuelzke won the Audrey Mitchell trophy for speech arts.

SCHOLARSHIP WINNERS
Winners of $50 scholarships and the donors included, instrumentally, Zonia Thachuk, C.J.C.A.; Lillian Lester, Edmonton branch of the Alberta Musical Festival; Barbara Bayand, Rotary Club; Geraldine Mason, Northwestern Utilities Ltd.; Shirley Hosking, Edmonton branch, A.M.F.; Leona Lazarovich, Woodmen of the World; and Max Pirani, presented with a $25 scholarship from Celebrity Concerts.

Vocal scholarships won were as follows: Lola Harris, C.F.R.N.; Ruth Cullerene, Edmonton branch of the A.M.F.; Verona Weaver, Kiwanis Club; Roy D. Miller, Hudson's Bay.

Scholarships in speech arts were as follows: Myrna Chien, Edmonton Municipal Chapter, I.O.D.E.; Donald Peirce, C.J.C.A.; Ruth Zuelzke, C.F.R.N.; Dolores Butting and Joyce Buckles, Edmonton Municipal Chapter, I.O.D.E.

SHOPPING GUIDE

Tender New Beets
Grace Local Markets

By Bea Thrifty

Recent census of the fresh vegetable kingdom shows a new arrival.

Tender new beets are waving their welcome—at a nominal fee of 25c per bunch.

Hot buttered beets—with lots of salt and pepper—are top-of-the-list to round out the usual meat 'n potatoes fare.

Fragrant symbol of spring—the scent of fresh-cut grass is evident these evenings as Edmontonians are busy whipping their gardens and lawns into shape.

Next door neighbor, especially proud of his new lawnmower which cost him $14.95 and does a fine job of trimming the grass.

Mind you he executes a few finishing touches with a pair of clippers, $1.85, and an edger—$1.75.

You can't beat heavy linen tableware—for durability and beauty. But you pay for this—and a lot for it.

It's impossible to buy a good quality banquet cloth and service for much less than $25.

That's on the grim side of the picture.

Looking at the bright side of things—there are lovely grass linen cloths with matching serviettes imported from China—that serve the purpose more than adequately.

Finished with delicate cutwork and embroidery, cloths of 70 by 90 inches sell for around $10 or $12.

The 24th of May—the Queen's birthday—if you don't give us a helping hand, we'll all run away.

May 24th is a real flag-day and almost every household sports at least one Union Jack.

Buy little silk flags for 2 for 25c.

Bleeding hearts—tear-jerking monicker for a lovely front-yard shrub.

Does wonders for your landscaping job—and you only have to pay 50c for this pretty perennial.

Time to get the summer fun wardrobe completed. Seem to be missing a pair of shorts myself.

Can't seem to make up my mind what kind to buy. There are white cotton, sharkskin or gabardine tennis shorts that are smart—and sell for around $1.98 to $4.98.

Then there are colored sharkskin shorts made by Gerhard Kennedy that fit to perfection—and slice the most obvious of hiplines—selling for $3.95.

Or bright-colored corduroy jobs—also figure flattering and practical—for they never look musty.

Some smarties in chocolate brown are selling for $4.95.

Eaglebrand sweetened condensed milk can be the handiest thing to have on the pantry shelf.

Quick-as-a-flash salad dressings, icings, candies, fillings, puddings can be prepared—and the tin of milk only costs 25c.

Speaking of dressings—here's one that will make your eyes pop with delight when they taste it.

It's a special concoction for fish dishes.

Peel half a small cucumber—cut down the middle and scrape out the seeds. Chop very fine. This should make about half a cup.

Mix into one cup mayonnaise and add a few grains of cayenne pepper. With a mixture of crab and salmon—topped with a spot of chopped gherkin—this makes an elegant sea-food cocktail.

LAST CALL: Don't forget to take advantage of the fresh asparagus season.

WHY GROW OLD

Family Fun Strengthens
Parent-Children Relations

By Josephine Lowman

During the wild 1920's and the first part of the 1930's the family group took a beating. The family hearthstone and the quiet or joyous moments when the whole family gathered about it, almost disappeared from certain circles of human society.

The war pulled us back to reality in many ways. Suddenly values which had been neglected became sharply etched on consciousness.

It is an much fun to do things as a family group! The home offers for hospitality and companionship with those you love best in a special sort of way. Money is not an essential. All that is needed is a warm, gay, understanding atmosphere which draws like a magnet!

I am thinking today of a family exercise program. If the woman in the home could once manage to start her family on such an adventure, I am quite certain that the physical benefits derived would very quickly become sugar coated by a lot of laughter. The children could laugh at Mother's creaking knees and Father would not mind a few digs about his hairy window. On the other hand, the parents would get a laugh out of the extra antics which are certain to occur when youth exercises. The nicest part of the picture is that Mother's joints will soon stop creaking and Daddy's window will soon disappear and Sister's and Brother's posture will improve and the whole family will enjoy a pickup in energy and self respect.

This could be a hilarious, as well as a profitable venture. Families work for financial security. Why not work together, with community interest, toward building a bulwark of extra energy and health, with more attractive thrown in for good measure?

Mother will have more trouble getting Dad to co-operate than she will engaging the children in this pursuit, because once Dad is caught the children will enter in. I know from the mail I receive that young girls or adolescents, are extremely interested in personal appearance.

The exercise program is different individuals in a family group vary because the problems do. However, most exercises can be done to waltz or two-four rhythm, so that you can exercise together.

Today I am going to give you an abdominal exercise which is fun to do with a partner. The partners can be two daughters, or a daughter and her mother, or two sons, or a son and his father. Sit facing each other. Partners bend knees and hook toes about their partner's ankles.

Keep this position throughout the exercise. Both individuals lie down on the floor, stretching their arms out on the floor in the overhead position. Both raise trunks and clap hands with partner. Lie down again and continue.

If you wish to have the exercises generally needed for the mother, father, son and daughter in the family, send a self-addressed envelope with your request for leaflet No. 35, "Family Exercise Plan." Address Josephine Lowman in care of this newspaper.

YOUR BABY AND MINE

Cruelty May Result
From Inferior Feeling

By Myrtle Meyer Eldred

If children are treated kindly by parents and other children in the family, mothers cannot but be appalled and worried when they find them treating animals cruelly.

Reasonless cruelty is hard to understand and they must look at it from the child's standpoint and try to determine whether it is entirely without foundation.

It is easy enough to find an answer if the child is, himself, the victim of cruel comrades, parents or relatives. Then they may expect that he, in turn, will bully helpless companions, or barring these will work out his spite and venom on animals.

Sometimes, when the child is jealous of other members of the family, and is restrained by parents from exhibiting his jealousy, it bursts forth in acts of cruelty to the pets he possesses. He wants to hurt something, as he is hurt, and the animal is the object closest at hand.

He may be a dominated child with parents who pack him into some mold of conduct which pleases them but antagonizes the child. He may not be strong enough to work his will against theirs, but the animal is helpless against him. He can feel the power of superiority, as he cannot in the family circle.

A child often carries burdens of inferiority because he cannot match or exceed the skills and talents of other members of the family. He may recognize his own handicaps though the family is ignorant of them. But the emotions of bitterness and misery will be there and may inspire him to deal cruelly with an animal who cannot retaliate against him.

Take away a pet if a child is mistreating it, until such time as his habits change. But know that ranting and shaming him will in no way alter his warped emotions. He needs love. He needs appreciation for what he is. He needs encouragement to develop his own talents and skills. Then he will feel those gentler, kinder emotions which will be reflected in his treatment of the helpless, whether animal or human.

Leaflet No. 64 "Curing Bad Habits," may be had by sending a stamped, self-addressed envelope to request to Myrtle Meyer Eldred in care of this newspaper.

Horoscope

By FRANCES DRAKE

Look in the zodiac in which your birthday comes and find what your outlook is, according to the stars.

March 21 to April 20 (Aries)—Great energy in all your plans and ambitions, whether involving just time or valuable. Don't lose sight of the fact that you are making decisions, decisions against strain.

April 21 to May 20 (Taurus)—We recommend being alert for wise openings in business, work, making contacts of future value. Stars most favorable to wise management, sound decisions, caution against strain.

May 21 to June 20 (Gemini)—Follow through with well-made plans, and don't anticipate trouble or worry about future. If you are on guard and on your best toes, that will be enough to achieve.

June 21 to July 20 (Cancer)—Avoid an impatient or arrogant attitude. It will get you in a "spot." Listen to all sides before making decisions or voicing your opinions.

July 21 to August 20 (Leo)—Excellent day for most worthy endeavors. Be sure you are right, don't make promises lightly, and never if you have little (if any) of doing. A slight falsehood is as bad as a spoken one.

August 21 to September 20 (Virgo)—We expect you to be philosophical concerning problems, and also to help others, and their suffering. You can do much good when things look dark, uncertain.

September 21 to October 20 (Libra)—Expect slight setback during a.m., but you can find a way to overcome difficulties. Your fine mental equipment and sense of humor will be the balance in your favor.

October 21 to November 20 (Scorpio)—Financial and heart interests have approving stars aspects. Keep yourself ready for unexpected good opportunities that may arise. Don't take things too seriously.

November 21 to December 20 (Sagittarius)—Practice action with your good talents and traits; another the bad ones. You will reap reward due on time, plus peace of mind. News of interest.

December 21 to January 20 (Capricorn)—Benefic rays for your use most of this generous day. Score your acts by your innate ability. Don't overdo. Don't overestimate. Your better better be surprised than disappointed.

January 21 to February 20 (Aquarius)—Go about work, duties, activities with confidence, be not stirred by criticism. Share happiness with those who deserve it. God gave many of us plenty for whom to be thankful.

February 21 to March 20 (Pisces)—Can hardly make your goal if you work up right, and go after things assuredly. Expect gain through persons in high positions. Romance favored; you are lucky in many ways. YOU BORN TODAY. Perhaps of no subject in life more intriguing, more exciting than the one that YOU are different—why? The answer lies in the stars of the stars. You are some time this way, sometimes make sometimes very provoking, sometimes most happily good. Mercury in Gemini gives versatility, flexibility, facility. When properly educated, Gemini is most fertile, want these assets rightly and go far in business, literary, professional world. Self-restraint important.

How
stainless steel
makes jobs
for Canadians

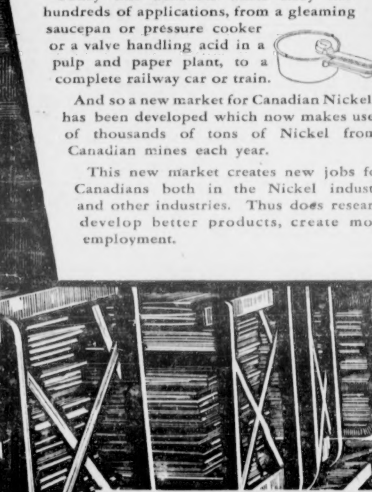

The early stainless steels developed prior to 1916 were used principally in making stainless cutlery. Since that time new steels containing Nickel in addition to Chromium have been developed which combine non-rusting properties with great strength and toughness.

International Nickel is working hand in hand with other industries in the development and application of stainless steel.

Today this beautiful white alloy has hundreds of applications, from a gleaming saucepan or pressure cooker or a valve handling acid in a pulp and paper plant, to a complete railway car or train.

And so a new market for Canadian Nickel has been developed which now makes use of thousands of tons of Nickel from Canadian mines each year.

This new market creates new jobs for Canadians both in the Nickel industry and other industries. Thus does research develop better products, create more employment.

Colorful Cottons Featured In Show

Earl of St. Andrew Chapter, IODE,
To Sponsor Wednesday Fashion Show

Merry-go-round of color is the keynote of the fashion show being sponsored by the Earl of St. Andrew Chapter IODE to be held in the Trocadero Ballroom Wednesday afternoon and evening.

Fashions feature Wabasso cotton and Mrs. Margaret Ballingwall is commentator. Tempo of the show will be set by Mona Brian dressed as a rabbit with big floppy ears and a pert tail.

For the tiny tots crisp white pinafores with matching puke sunbonnets will be modelled. Particularly eye-catching are little sister dresses featuring rows of elaborate smocking.

Cotton is even being featured in youngsters' wear. Double breasted pink broadcloth coat with matching bonnet will be modelled.

TEEN-AGE STYLE
Delight of every teen-ager's heart is a dainty off-the-shoulder printed cotton with added interest coming from an old-fashioned petticoat just showing beneath the flounced hemline.

Tailored day-time dresses are fashioned from printed and plain materials. Simplicity is the keynote of a blue and white polka dot print complemented with chalk white collar and cuffs.

Chic is a simply-styled dress of flame red poplin styled with a full swing skirt and large patch pockets.

Sportswear too, shows evidence of new tricks with cotton. Navy blue cooler jacket banded in white with a classic white pleated tennis dress.

Hot of color is evident in a pale yellow printed beach dress in shades of blue and pink.

EVENINGWARE
Hold navy blue and white print fashions, off-the-shoulder evening dress brightened with bowed shoulder straps in red. Matching red shawl is worn with the gown.

Dainty is a butter yellow evening gown of plain broadcloth with front panel of blue. Added interest is in a yellow butterfly brooch simulated as a bustle.

Mrs. Stanley Ross and Ethel McKenzie are convening the show and Mrs. William Kasu is in charge of publicity.

Modeling the fashions will be Mrs. B. Blaquiere, Mrs. Alan Macdonald, Mrs. W. Maubert, Mrs. Alfred Noak, Mrs. J. Falkenberg, Mrs. G. Gunderson, Mrs. A. CO-ED ADOPTS SLIDE-RULE: Virginia Webb is the first woman student to graduate in Civil Engineering from the University of Alberta. Active in student activities during her four-year course she is the only co-ed graduating in engineering at this year's convocation ceremonies.

U Co-Ed Graduates In Civil Engineering

By Margaret Weir
Iron ring awarded to graduate engineers is worn by few University women graduates. But that is the honor held by Virginia Webb.

Virginia is the only co-ed receiving a degree in engineering at this year's convocation. Moreover the dark-eyed student is the first woman to graduate from the University of Alberta in civil engineering.

Convocation ceremonies will culminate four years of study for Virginia. She is the daughter of Mr. H. B. Webb and the late Prof. Webb, of the University of Alberta.

CLASS HISTORIAN
Virginia was chosen by the senior class executive to be historian at the valedictory exercises held in Convocation Hall Monday afternoon.

But slide-rules and drafting plans didn't absorb all Virginia's interest. An ardent musician, she's been an invaluable member of the university symphony. It's the violin she plays.

ENGINEERS' QUEEN
Queen of the Engineers' Hall of 1946 was the honor accorded her by fellow engineers.

During her variety sojourn she was a member of the Engineering Student Society, women's discipline in charge of the study book.

Presbyterian WMS Plan Wednesday Meeting
Members of First Presbyterian Church Women's Missionary Society will meet in the church social room Wednesday at 2:30 p.m.

Mrs. C. P. Hurlingham, Mrs. E. B. Dodge and Miss M. Heith will be in charge of the study book.

clubs, in which case he might have met with immediate disaster. McCormick was the opening lead of the five of hearts with dummy's ace, led a small spade to the king, then made a very nice play. He led the jack of diamonds. West could not be severely criticized for not going up with the ace at least. He did not, so the jack held the trick. Now all of the spades were run, the king of hearts cashed, and the king and queen of diamonds. He was left with the deuce of hearts and ten of diamonds in dummy, and in his own hand the queen and seven of hearts.

Your West was squeezed. If he threw away the ace of diamonds, dummy's ten would be good; while if he discarded his heart, McCormick would lead dummy's deuce of hearts to the queen and the seven-spade would give him the last trick.

WHY MOTHERS GET GRAY

Premier Plans Farewell Tour

Prime Minister May Also Visit Europe Before He Retires

By R. K. CARNEGIE

OTTAWA, May 17.—(CP)—Prime Minister Mackenzie King told friends during the week-end that he will definitely leave office some time this autumn. He plans to visit various parts of Canada before he quits.

This session of parliament is the last session in which he leads the government. He will stay on the job, however, until the session ends. There are hopes the commons can finish its business by the end of June. If not, it will adjourn until September.

The exact date when Mr. King hands over the office of prime minister will depend on the convenience of his successor. Not even Mr. King knows the date.

CHOOSE LEADER
The Liberal convention in August will choose a new national leader but that does not mean Mr. King must resign immediately. The prime ministership is an appointment of the crown, not of the party.

The new leader, whoever he is, will need some time to look over the available cabinet material and form a new government. When he has done that, Mr. King will hand his resignation to the prime minister to the Governor-General and advise his excellency to call on the new Liberal leader to succeed him.

After he quits as government leader he will continue to sit in the commons as a private citizen until the end of the present parliament. But he will not contest a seat in the next general election.

PERSONAL THANKS
Mr. King said his trip in Canada will give him an opportunity to go among the people and thank them personally for their support during the more than 20 years he has been prime minister.

He also is considering the advisability of a trip to Europe, before he retires. When he toured Western Europe last year he received an excellent reception which his friends have told him placed Canada in a most favorable light.

On that trip he was unable to go to Italy and Greece. Now some of his advisers say he should visit those countries before he steps down.

Mr. King said it would be a wrench to retire from active public life for "it has been my life so many years." But he acknowledged it would come as a relief, too. Any man who has the office of prime minister must make enemies; and I sometimes wonder that I have any friends left.

As prime minister, he had found it necessary to keep much to himself. He looked forward to mixing more freely with his fellows after the load of office was gone.

MAY COMPLETE CYCLE
In numerous ways, Mr. King said that when he leaves public life he still will have to earn a living. He recalled that as a young man he was a reporter on the old Toronto Globe. It might be that the cycle will be completed, he said, and that he again will do "something in the nature of newspaper work."

Hollywood Film Shop

By Bob Thomas

HOLLYWOOD, May 17.—(AP)—From reading the headlines, you might think the chief hobbies of the stars are night-club brawls, getting married and appearing in court. Actually, their off-the-set pastimes are much more normal.

Take Lew Ayres. He's an astronomy buff and spends much of his night hours peering through a 12-inch telescope atop his lookout mountain home. Or Glenn Ford, a stamp collector.

Scratch an actor and you'll find a budding Rembrandt. Among the movie artists are Ginger Rogers, Frank Sinatra, Jane Wyman, Red Skelton, Linda Darnell, Cornel Wilde, Merle Oberon, etc.

Edward G. Robinson has one of the finest private art collections in the world. Harpo Marx, Charles Laughton and Paulette Goddard are other notable collectors.

LEW AYRES

OVERGROWN BOYS

These overgrown boys, Barry Fitzgerald, Keenan Wynn and Larry Parks like nothing better than to burn up the roads on their motorcycles. Clark Gable and Donald O'Connor enjoy tinkering with cars. Theirs, of course, are the high-powered, foreign-made variety.

Byronne Power, Dick Powell, Brian Donlevy, Dick Haymes, Wayne Morris and John Taylor spend their spare hours flying. The sea claims Bogart and Baby, Frank Morgan, James Cagney and Errol Flynn.

Wed and Buried Within Six Days

VANCOUVER, May 17.—(CP)—Rev. Hugh M. Rae will preach the funeral service Tuesday for a couple he married six days ago.

Rev. Rae officiated at the marriage of Mr. and Mrs. Dawson, both 30, here last Monday night. Both were killed in an automobile crash near Eugene, Oregon, Wednesday while travelling to Mexico for their honeymoon.

Woman Dies At 102

KOMAHNO, Man., May 17.—(CP)—Mrs. Julia Hrycenko died here last Friday in her 102nd year. She was born in the Ukraine, Mrs. Hrycenko came to Canada with her husband 50 years ago.

Health Program Benefits May Not Show for a Year

By George Kitchen

OTTAWA, May 17.—(CP)—It may be some months—perhaps even another year—before Canadians reap any benefit from the $30,000,000 public health program which Prime Minister Mackenzie King announced Friday.

The first step is for Parliament to provide the money—a foregone conclusion. After that, Health Minister Martin will meet the provincial health department officials who will put the program into active operation.

Before the money is awarded, however, each province's department will have to give Martin, and through him the federal government, an outline of its plans for using the funds. Then, if the Dominion agrees that they are going to the best possible use, the grants will be paid from the public treasury.

Some months are expected to elapse before these preliminary talks and negotiations are completed and the increased health services become available. Even then, their growth and development may be so gradual as to be almost unnoticeable on the short-term view.

USES FOR GRANTS

The grants, to be paid out at a rate of $30,000,000 a year, will go towards expanded hospital facilities, treatment of crippled children, training of professional personnel, medical research, and control of tuberculosis, cancer and venereal diseases.

The program, although it has been forestalled in government pronouncements, met a mixed reception in the commons and in capital political circles. Opposition party leaders welcomed it but said they thought some of the grants might have been larger.

On the political side, there were a few sly digs at the government for the timing of the announcement. It comes on the approach of three federal by-elections and two provincial general elections.

All nine provinces are expected to accept the grants since there are no "strings" attached to the Dominion offer, at least on the surface. The only condition made by Mr. King was that they "at least" maintain their present health expenditures.

This presumably is to avoid the possibility of any province taking undue advantage of the federal grants to lower its own outlay in the health field and thus improve its internal financial position.

B.C. To Ask Federal Aid In Hospital

VICTORIA, May 17.—(CP)—British Columbia plans to ask the federal government for aid in the construction of a new hospital at Nanaimo.

Premier Byron Johnson is expected to put the proposal before the Nanaimo hospital board.

Johnson said he was pleased that the new B.C. hospital care plan and that he felt the federal government should share in the responsibility and contribute to the cost.

Health Program Satisfactory Start

REGINA, May 17.—(CP)—Walter Tucker, Saskatchewan Liberal leader, estimated last night the province would receive $2,400,000 a year from the health program announced last week by Prime Minister Mackenzie King.

But he said the proposals were "satisfactory only as a start toward the full and complete nationwide health insurance scheme."

N.B. Election Date May Be Announced

FREDERICTON, May 17.—(CP)—The provincial cabinet will meet here Tuesday. Premier McNair announced yesterday he is expected to announce the date of the forthcoming New Brunswick election then. The Liberal premier announced May 4 that an election would be held "early" this summer.

Council For Blind Adopts Pension Plan

CALGARY, May 17.—(CP)—Alberta division, Canadian Council of the Blind, voted in favor of a "six-point pension plan for the blind" at the annual general meeting of the division here yesterday.

The five Edmonton and five Calgary delegates unanimously endorsed a blind pensions act to include:

1. Creation of a blind persons act separate from and independent of the Old Age Pension Act.
2. Use of the term "blindness allowance" and elimination of the term "pension."
3. Elimination of the means test in the award of blindness allowance.
4. Adequate rate of blindness allowance in relation to cost of living.
5. Reduction in the present 20 years residence requirement to five years.
6. Adequate provision for medical or surgical treatment for eye conditions to conserve or restore vision and prevent blindness.

EDMONTON MAN CHAIRMAN
(H. A. Lacey of Edmonton was elected chairman of the division for 1948 with W. H. Phillips of Calgary as vice-chairman and Miss Elsie McCrae, Edmonton, director.

Other Edmonton delegates were Alex Gemmell, Nick Keller and M. Wagner.
